

Judson Beaumont Memorial Bursary

As a young adult with a somewhat uncertain future, Jud credits his father for steering him towards art school at a time when direction was needed. It wasn't long before Jud's artistic abilities and enthusiasm for the art world began to unfold. With the support of great teachers and the inspiration from those around him, Jud became committed to making art his life. With a drive that was unparalleled, Jud ran a small business for over thirty years, established a unique reputation as extraordinary craftsman, reveled in a circle of friends that extended around the world and expressed appreciation for family in everything he did.

Our wish with the Judson Beaumont Bursary is that it will provide an opportunity for young artists to pursue their love for the arts and, through their education, discover a similar love, passion and enthusiasm for life.
